

We promise the five elements of LUXURY with a theme of "harmony", guiding each guest to their own "eighth sense" through hospitality that touches all five senses.

Accommodation Overview

On approx. 600mi of land lies our main building, over 250 years old, boasting an impressive thatched roofs. Additionally, we offer the precious tea room "Joshun," exemplifying historic and culturally significant sukiya-style architecture, along with a detached guesthouse filled with Japanese traditional craftsmanship and materials, available exclusively for one group at a time.

We cater to a wide range of events, including celebrations, corporate training, and banquets; please feel free to contact us.

Hachikan Ohara
108 Ohara Tojimachi, Sakyo-ku,
Kyoto, Japan, 601-1245
TEL. (+81)75-744-0997
For reservations and inquiries, visit our official website

はちかん
HACHIKAN

Five senses : Immerse in hospitality engaging all senses

Sixth sense : Feel with your heart

Seventh sense : Encounter the vitality of celestial and nature

Eighth sense : Discover sanctuary within Hachikan

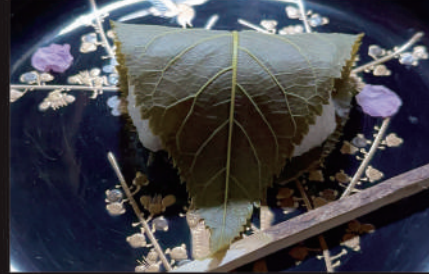

Main House

Irori sunken hearth (Main House)

SPA Sauna

Harmony Through Tea Ceremony

Learn Tradition and Spirit

Experience the authentic tea ceremony in our tea room, Joshun, where guests of all backgrounds can immerse themselves in the art of tea.

Through the ritual of traditional tea ceremony, discover inner peace and cherish precious moments with loved ones, fostering a sense of tranquility and harmony within.

Nestled in Kyoto's renowned gentle village, Ohara, awaits a hidden gem—a luxurious accommodation limited to one group per day, offering exclusive use of the entire building.

Through our hospitality, centred around the theme of "harmony," designed to engage all five senses, we are here to assist you on a journey that invites exploration of your own "eighth sense."

Experience the essence of authentic Japan to the fullest at Hachikan, where we offer the pinnacle of traditional Japanese wellness in a pristine environment.

Abundantly utilizing the craftsmanship of artisans, we bridge generations and cultures, offering a genuine Japanese experience that touches the heart and connects with the world.

Harmony Through Cuisine

Nourish with Quality Energy

Indulge in the finest kaiseki cuisine prepared by our exclusive traveling chef, who skillfully captures the essence of Japanese culinary mastery.

With locally sourced fresh vegetables from Ohara and seasonal premium ingredients, our cuisine promises inner harmony with dishes brimming with natural energy.

Harmony Through Spa

Relaxation and Detoxification

At Hachikan SPA, we offer state-of-the-art facilities including a hinoki bath, an open-air bath, a dry sauna, and a Thermarivm spa.

Experience genuine relaxation through our premium relaxation services.

Enjoy the mindfulness that was once experienced by emperors and nobility from both the East and the West.

Tea Garden

Tea Room "Joshun"

Waiting Area in the Tea Garden

