

Kakuozan Historical Walk

The Kakuozan district, where temples, shrines, and the former estates of wealthy magnates remain, began development with the establishment of Nittaiji Temple in 1904. Just 14 minutes by subway from Nagoya Station, the central train hub for Nagoya, and 9 minutes from Sakae Station, this district once saw the promenades of wealthy merchants and cultural figures. How about a leisurely stroll through this historic area, allowing your mind to wander back to its glorious past?

Suggested Itinerary 1

Tea Ceremony Experience

- Visit the Tamesaburo Memorial Museum and have a tea ceremony experience
- Tour the Furukawa Art Museum
- Explore the Kakuozan Shopping Street
- Visit Nittaiji Temple
- Visit Yokiso Villa

Booking Information ▶

Suggested Itinerary 2

Incense Appreciation Experience

- Visit the Tamesaburo Memorial Museum and have an incense appreciation experience
- Tour the Furukawa Art Museum
- Explore the Kakuozan Shopping Street
- Visit Nittaiji Temple
- Visit Yokiso Villa

Booking Information ▶

Suggested Itinerary 3

For the Energetic Walker

- Tour the Tamesaburo Memorial Museum
- Visit the Furukawa Art Museum
- Explore the Kakuozan Shopping Street
- Visit Nittaiji Temple
- Visit Yokiso Villa
- Visit Sououji Temple
- Visit Showa Jukudo
- Conclude at Shiroyama Hachimangu Shrine

Please contact us and mention the Energetic Walker Course. ▶

Please select your preferred itinerary from the options provided.

We can also customize the content to suit your preferences.

Please note that depending on your chosen activities, the price may vary.

Price

Prices (per person)
1 person: ¥170,000
2 people: ¥85,000 per person
3 people: ¥60,000 per person
4 people: ¥50,000 per person
5 people: ¥40,000 per person
6-10 people: ¥30,000 per person

Included in the price:

- Admission to each tourist facility
- English language support
- Tea or Incense Appreciation Experience
- Guide ● Snacks during the walk

Not included in the price:

- Round-trip transportation ● Meals

*Please note that taxi fares from prominent hotels in Nagoya city range from approximately ¥6,000 to ¥10,000.

Duration

10 AM to 4 PM

*Morning walks can also be arranged; however, prices may vary.

Tourism Designers

Contact Information

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation Date/No-show or after the tour has started
Cancellation Fee/100% of the total cost

8-10 days before the tour / 20% of the total cost
11 days or more before the tour / Free of charge
The day before the tour / 50% of the total cost

The day before the tour / 40% of the total cost
2-7 days before the tour / 30% of the total cost

Key Attractions of Kakuozan

Tamesaburo Memorial Museum: The former residence of Nagoya's leading tycoon, Furukawa Tamesaburo, featured in a famous American economic magazine.

Furukawa Art Museum: This museum houses the collection of Nagoya's leading tycoon, Furukawa Tamesaburo, featured in a famous American economic magazine.

Nittaiji Temple: The only temple in Japan that houses the genuine relics of Buddha, transcending sectarian boundaries.

Kakuozan Shopping Street: A shopping district that developed from a temple town in front of the gates of Nittaiji Temple.

Yokiso Villa: The former estate of Ito Jirozaemon Suketami, the 15th president of Matsuzakaya Corporation, one of Japan's leading department stores.

Sououji Temple: This temple is associated with the Tokugawa family, who ruled Japan about 400 years ago. The building dates back 350 years.

Shiroyama Hachimangu Shrine and Showa Jukudo: Located at the site of a mountain castle associated with the famous warlord Oda Nobunaga. The remnants of the moat are still visible. Showa Jukudo is an educational facility on the premises, dating back about 100 years.

For a visual overview of the itineraries, please visit our website at Kakuozan Historical Walk (visitkakuozan.com).