VILLA CRAWFORD

Villa Crawford is a classic Italian villa, set within a park of 1,500 square meters, with a breathtaking view of the sea, the Gulf of Naples, and Sorrento's unique coastline.

The villa was purchased in 1885 by the American writer Sir Francis Marion Crawford, who wrote most of his masterpieces here. A passionate seaman, Sir Marion Crawford connected the villa to the small harbor just below through a picturesque private path. He also decorated the gardens with antique statues, orange, and lemon trees, recreating the typical Mediterranean atmosphere.

The mood at Villa Crawford is simple and discreet; the rooms, with their essential style, invite guests to enjoy a well-deserved rest, and the villa also features a large meeting room. It is the ideal retreat to escape the noise of the city and to savor the scents and views of the Mediterranean Sea.
