①Edo Wonderland Nikko Edomura

A culture park where you can experience Edo culture. The vast streets of Edo are recreated against the backdrop of Nikko's beautiful mountains.

⑤ Nikko Tamozaawa Imperial Villa Memorial Park

It was used by three Emperors and Crown Princes, and visitors can enjoy the architecture, which combines the architectural styles of the Edo, Meiji, and Taisho eras, as well as the seasonal natural beauty of the gardens.

②Nikko Strawberry Park

The farm grows 4 varieties, including "Tochi-Aika," a new, exceptionally sweet variety shaped like a heart, allowing you to sample and compare Tochigi's most popular strawberry varieties.

⑥Hunter Mountain Shiobara

This is one of the largest snow resorts, located about two and a half hours from the Tokyo metropolitan area, and is also attractive for its well-balanced course layout for all levels.

③Tobu World Square

Famous buildings from around the world are reproduced at a scale of 1/25. You can take lots of photos of your trip around the world at the photo spots in the park.

⑦Wakayama farm

This vast bamboo forest has been used as a filming location for movies and commercials. In addition to strolling and taking photos, there are also plenty of hands-on activities available, such as bamboo crafts.

④World Heritage "Shrines and Temples of Nikko"

It is also famous as a power spot, and is highly acclaimed for the landscape that combines its historical buildings with the surrounding nature.

⑧Oya History Museum

The temperature in this magnificent underground space, about 30 meters below ground, is around 10 degrees Celsius even in summer. Here, dolls that recreate the quarrying process and modern illuminated art pieces are on display.
